

NAME: ROSS, Thomas Barnston

PLACE OF BIRTH: Chicoutimi

ENTERED SERVICE: 1864

DATES: 1840-1930

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*	Position	Post	District	HBCA Reference
1864-1876	Labourer	Lake St. John	Saguenay	B.134/g/39, 50
1876-1890	Clerk	Whitefish Lake	Huron	RG2/71/60; B.134/g/51-64
1890-1892	Junior Chief Trader		Huron	B.134/g/65-66
1892-1898	Junior Chief Trader		Saguenay	A.81/1-6
1896, 30 June	Resigned as of this date but stayed on books			A.12/FT 340/4 Misc., fo. 136
1930, 20 March	Died in Victoria, B.C.			Beaver vertical file, British Columbia Vital Statistics

*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May

For a photo of the Ross family (including T. Barnston and son Dr. T.R.) see Search File "Ross, T.R. and family"

For a photo of Thomas Barnston Ross see 1987/363-E-700-R/145 [ca. 1921].

Father: Simon (1804-1884)

Children: George Munro (1870-1948) (Edmonton Journal 13 Sept. 1948, obit. of George Munro Ross on Beaver vertical file)

Thomas Robert (b. ca. 1872) (The Bay News Apr. 1957:3)

Dr. Colin of Montreal in 1957 (The Bay News Apr. 1957:3)

Arthur Howie (1886-1964) a hockey legend with the Boston Bruins (North Bay Nugget 6 August 1964 on Beaver vertical files)

Alexander (Edmonton Journal 13 Sept. 1948, obit. of George Munro Ross on Beaver vertical file)

Dr. Simon, d. ca. 1948 in Philadelphia (Edmonton Journal 13 Sept. 1948, obit. of George Munro Ross on Beaver vertical file)

Another three boys and one girl (The Bay News Apr. 1957:3)

For some family history see T.R. Ross's brief memoir in HBCA, RG2/71/60

It has been understood that Ross' widow, Marguerite or Margaret, the daughter of Peter McLeod, Sr. (see Biog.) and Marguerite Savard, married Chief Factor Peter McKenzie. (Corr., J. Wilson, 2003) However, while it was true that Margaret lived with Peter McKenzie from ca. 1900, Ross lived until 1930, causing some confusion as to whether or not Thomas Barnston Ross and Margaret were divorced.

