Construction employees who work on general holidays are entitled to overtime wages for all hours worked.

Unlike employees in other industries, construction employees are paid their general holiday pay as a percentage of regular earnings. Regular earnings include vacation wages but do not include overtime wages. Employers can pay the four per cent at the end of the year or on every cheque.

There are eight general holidays throughout the year:

Employees who are not sure how holidays are paid should ask their employers.

Do construction employees have to work on the general holiday to get general holiday pay?

Construction employees earn general holiday pay as four percent of their regular wages. They receive this pay, even if they never work on a general holiday.
