

THE INSURANCE CORPORATIONS TAX ACT
INSURANCE PURCHASER'S RETURN

A person who enters directly into a contract of insurance with an unlicensed insurer without the transaction being facilitated through a Special Broker must pay the insurance corporations tax on that insurance contract. Retail Sales Tax may also be payable. (see ² below) All taxes must be paid by the 20th of the following calendar month in which the premium became payable. A copy of the insurance contract must be attached to this return.
