Librarian's Picks

Ruin and redemption : the struggle for a Canadian bankruptcy law, 1867-1919 / Thomas GW Telfer. Toronto : Published for The Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History by University of Toronto Press, 2014. xviii, 297 pages.
KE 1499 Tel

From the publisher:

In 1880 the federal Parliament of Canada repealed the Insolvent Act of 1875, leaving debtor-creditor matters to be regulated by the provinces. Almost forty years later, Parliament finally passed new bankruptcy legislation, recognizing that what was once considered a moral evil had become a commercial necessity. In Ruin and Redemption, Thomas GW Telfer analyses the ideas, interests, and institutions that shaped the evolution of Canadian bankruptcy law in this era. Examining the vigorous public debates over the idea of bankruptcy, Telfer argues that the law was shaped by conflict over the morality of release from debts and by the divergence of interests between local and distant creditors. Ruin and Redemption is the first full-length study of the origins of Canadian bankruptcy law, thus making it an important contribution to the study of Canada's commercial law.

Finding focus : framing Canadian Métis and First Nations on film / written by Kevin Nikkel ; edited by Monica Lowe. Winnipeg : Winnipeg Film Group, 2014. 79 pages. Includes DVD
E 96.2 Nik

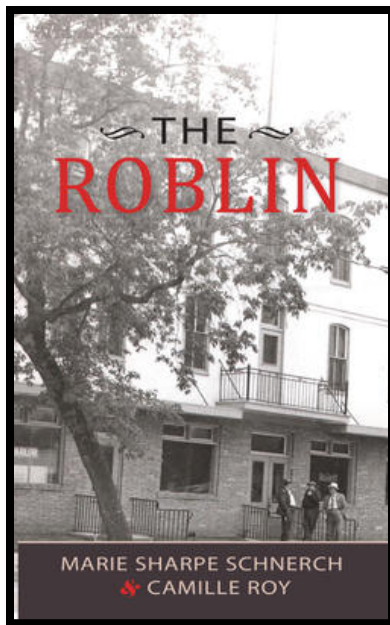

From the publisher:

Finding Focus is a resource guide designed to help High School educators utilize the wealth of creative short films made by talented independent filmmakers in Manitoba and across Canada. It is our hope that this book and these films, which are about diverse subject matters and are made in a wide range of genres and styles, will assist both teachers and students.

In addition we hope that teachers will be motivated to use the visual medium of film in more of their lessons and that students may be inspired to make their own films in order to express their thoughts and share their message with others.

The Roblin / Marie Sharpe Schnerch. Winnipeg : Camille Roy, 2014. 219 pages.

CT 2 Roy Sch

From the publisher:

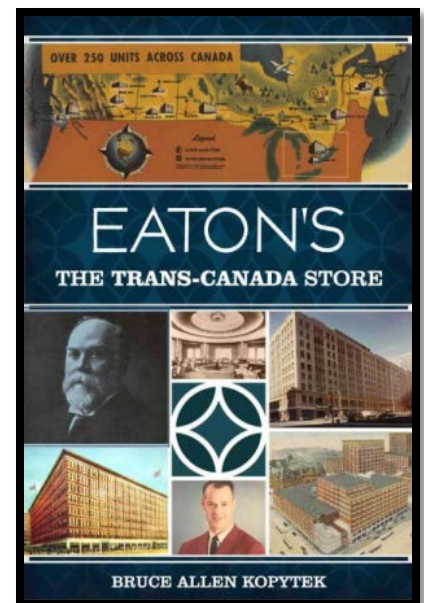

Built in 1882, The Roblin Hotel, located on Adelaide Street in Winnipeg's Exchange District, had the distinction of being the last men-only hotel and beer parlour in Canada. Once owned and operated by pioneer and politician J.B. Lauzon, it remained in the family until it was demolished in 1993. Within these pages, interwoven with bits of Manitoba's history, is the tale of The Roblin and three generations of the Roy family (J.B.'s youngest daughter's family). It brings to life stories, both humorous and sad, about the colourful men who lived in the hotel and those who frequented the beer parlour, as remembered by Camille Roy.

Eaton's : the trans-Canada store / Bruce Allen Kopytek. Charleston, South Carolina : The History Press, 2014. 464 pages.

HF 5465 .C3 .E2 Kop

From the publisher:

Canada's largest and most well-known department store, Eaton's was an icon of Canadian culture. From its founding in 1869 to its famed catalogue and network of large stores spreading coast to coast, Eaton's offered something for everyone, in grand style. Relive the days when this remarkable store was a fixture in every Canadian province and served its customers with a distinctive personality that has all but vanished from the retail landscape.

The house beside the rock hill / Aina V. (Gulbis) Turton. Swan River : Aina V. (Gulbis) Turton, 2010. 119 pages.

CT 1 Turton, Aina Tur

From the book :

Take Highway 315 to Bird River. Cross the bridge and turn left. Follow a paved road along the north side of the river for a mile and a half and you will see a big rock hill on the right. At the east end is a dense tangled overgrowth of plum trees, lilacs and weeds. Here was my childhood home. This was once a beautiful, well-maintained farmyard developed by a Latvian immigrant who homesteaded here in 1910.

Read this recollection of life in a pioneering community as told by a woman who experienced it.
