

Wilderness Camping Areas – A designated area within a park or a designated park where camping is allowed at any suitable location.

Provincial Park	Description of Wilderness Camping Areas	Access	Notes:
Atikaki	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Park visitors typically fly-in. For those traversing the Bloodvein, an all-weather road is available to the community of Bloodvein and transportation can be arranged through the local community. Paddlers can also access Atikaki as part of a longer paddle through Wallace Lake and South Atikaki provincial parks.	This includes the Bloodvein Canadian Heritage River. Typical trips may include portions of Ontario. Travellers should take note of Special Management Zone restrictions on motorized travel include airplane landings. Paddlers travelling through to Woodland Caribou Provincial Park in Ontario should contact Ontario Parks for permit information.
Caribou River	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Fly-in.
Colvin Lake	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Fly-in.
Goose Islands	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Boat or float plane.
Grand Island	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Boat or float plane.
Helca/Grindstone	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary except for Hecla Island and the portion of Grindstone Point that is designated as Resource Management and Recreation Development land use categories.	Hecla/Grindstone Provincial Park is road accessible, located on Highway 8, approximately 165 km north of Winnipeg.	Hecla/Grindstone Provincial Park is a multi-use park with many hiking trails and a full - service campground.
Kinwow Bay	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Boat or float plane.
Nueltin Lake	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Fly-in.
Numaykoos Lake	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Fly-in.

Pembina Valley	All lands within the park boundary, excluding the areas of the park found in 1-17 WPM, 12-1-7 WPM, west half of 6-1-6 WPM, SW 7-1-6 WPM, and the area designated as recreational development land use category in SE 7-1-6 WPM.	Hike in.	No trails are maintained within the areas where wilderness camping is permitted. Hikers should pack enough water for their trip due to very limited access to water.
Sand Lakes	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Fly-in.
South Atikaki	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within park boundary excluding the shorelines of Siderock and Wallace Lakes.	South Atikaki Provincial Park is accessible by canoe from Wallace Lake Campground.
Sturgeon Bay	Wilderness camping is permitted on all lands within the park boundary.	Boat or float plane.	